WARRANTY

1. SungJi Hydraulics warrants its manufactured products to be free from defective material and factory workmanship for 18 months and seal defects for 12 months not to include normal wear from date of receipt to our customers facility. SungJi Hydraulics shall replace or repair such products, which under normal use and service disclose such defects, and return the repaired or replacement products to the purchaser prepaid. Claims under this warranty will be satisfied only by repair or replacement of the unit or any defective part thereof. No cash payment will be made for defective materials, workmanship, labor, or incidental charges. Products under warranty shall be returned to SungJi Hydraulics or an authorized return point, transportation prepaid by the purchaser, for inspection by SungJi Hydraulics, whose opinion as to defects shall be conclusive.
2. Any parts that are modified, altered, misused, abused, or neglected void the warranty. You are responsible for all expenses associated with non-warranty repairs. This warranty does not cover normal wear and consumable parts such as seals, unless otherwise specified. You are responsible for using hydraulic oil and hydraulic systems that meet or exceed ISO Cleanliness Code 17 for hydraulic fluid contamination and operating the unit at the correct hydraulic pressure and temperatures not to exceed the pressure and temperature ratings listed on the drawings. In no event shall SungJi Hydraulics be liable for any incidental or consequential damages.
3. SungJi Hydraulics reserves the right to make changes in the design or construction of any of its products at any time without incurring any obligations to make changes or alterations to products previously sold.
4. This warranty is in lieu of all other and for prior warranties, expressed or implied, and no other company or person is authorized to represent or assume for SungJi Hydraulics any liability in connection with the sale of SungJi Hydraulics products other than set forth herein.
